Information: Thank you for booking with Greenside Up. All courses and workshops must be booked and paid for in advance. It's advisable to book early. Refunds can be given if you cancel at least two weeks or more before the date of the workshop (or first session if there are more than one in the course). After that time fees are non-refundable. Cheques or postal orders should be made payable to Greenside Up. On receipt of your booking form and payment you will be sent confirmation of your place.

Please note that some sessions include a tour of the garden. When this is the case please wear appropriate rainproof gear. The garden is 1000ft above sea level so you may not find it as warm as you are used to!
